P.S. You're Hot

give myself a final break. gift worth giving for the giving's sake. transformation, what's it take? if you've got an out i've got a make. to the lies i'm already dead. false alibis singing in my head. well, maybe not dead but at least i'm trying to rebirth my spirit in a process like dying. been kept down for far too long. takes all my courage just to sing this song. would you know if i gave you a gem? the liars surround, are you one of them? i see your heart as if it's a mirror. please reflect me beyond fear. you're precious like sunlight or a pearl in a stream. Time's current flows, come share in the dream. remember that game you played as a child. before they took you, made you unwild. domesticated, they broke your spirit, but now it's calling. can you hear it? when you're far away you were told "no my friend, you're very cold." but when you got near to what you sought, they'd go & giggle, say "you're very hot." i see you in a prison of invisible walls. you suffer daily as your innocence calls "Please free me, don't leave me alone. cause everything here casts the first stone." i'll write you a letter to help your soul. you'll fully win when you take control. in the journey for wholeness it's good news i got. i'll finish the letter "P.S. you're hot." hey, got a message now for your true self. person you were before your heart on a shelf. gathering dust, losing life force & health. in the struggle to be, set yourself free. be the elf, stealth. it's a long bloody battle that you seem to be losing. doubt is a drug & i know you've been using. the illusion is strong & you're in for a bruising. in the late hour, reclaim your power from lies oozing, confusing. there are many things you'll discover as true, like all that grace that is stolen from you. a cocoon of falseness, leave it be new & in the light that brings, sun your wings. the sky blue, a clue. now is a time to forget time exists. fight out of your cage with righteous closed fists. think of all those futures, away they were pissed. but you can choose other, out of love for our Mother. heaven kissed, blissed, yeah.

Nuclear Family Holocaust Planning

i'm numb to your pain, deaf to the innocent cries & i like to party while the world dies. i know i'm not bad, but i'm not all good. kinda like a thief next to a christ on wood. & you don't want my feelings. you'll just float away. dress you in my dealings & masturbate decay. come masturbate decay. you should see the ways in which i'm trying, but nothing stays, it's another day dying. an underdog "I suck" the hand that feeds. a lowly slob, hell my plans just bleed.

maybe tomorrow or another day i will bypass sorrow and find my way. who knows what i feel? your life flows & mine congeals. it's the best shot that we got. by far it's a star-machine. you were taught, but forgot. a fresh start, your heart a beam. many doors open, many things true. i know you're just coping, but your dreams, they can come true. MAYBE what i'm here to take. will SAVE ME so later i'm awake. it MIGHT BE what i'm looking for is my own hand to clean the slate and TALLY UP THE SCORE. it's HARD TO SEE just how far you've come. it's EASY to crumble & feel numb. but I WANT TO show you i'm alive, cause there's better things to do than JUST SURVIVE. but i'm numb from the pain.

Sew Lonely (These Daze)

i'm so lonely these days. i need someone. maybe share some loving, maybe share some fun. i need you girl like Luke needs Darth. if it was the wintertime baby, i would be your scarf. i'm so lonely & i don't care. i'm not wearing any underwear. i'm so lonely these days, my friends betray me. like to give them the gift of a lobotomy. but fuck my friends, all i want is you. take a time out baby please. see that this love is true. i'm so lonely these days. i wish you were here, but all i feel inside is the nearness of fear. maybe not much time for me left in this world. i'm like a dog abused, in the corner curled.

Superstar

it's a struggle for balance, a fight for control. you're doing all that you can to become whole. some people say you're not just born with a soul. it's something that you earn if you can be taught how to learn. are you lost in a land where nobody feels. what is it negativity conceals? watch the inner Liar who skillfully steals all of your grace & trashes the place. i'll meet you on a plain where you cannot drown. get to a place where you're no longer down. pick wild flowers for your spirit a crown. a romantic wealth that you share with yourself. Life gets hard, not denying that. you're the surgeon & the patient; Yo, operate stat! c'mon my friend you know where it's at. could it be your duty, cause i know we need your beauty? hey, i know it's time to let go. erase the forces that cheat & rob. take it slow & try to grow. it's a rainbow-cactus doorknob.

Iraq, I Love You (Sorry About the Bombs)

Iraq, i love you. sorry about the bombs. they say that murder's wrong but i have little qualms. to the poor i cheat the score, bullets are my alms. back in my homeland, your death a thing that calms. your lives worth less than the blood we spill. cup runneth over, haven't had our fill. real american dream to bomb & kill. Iraq, that's true. my thanks all the way to you. my wife i need you, sorry about my fist. not since our wedding day have you since been kissed. in the public eye, love you till i die, behind closed doors i'm pissed. invisible chains are locked tight. wrapped around your wrists. sit around fart, watch T.V. you're the dog that's under me. go ahead, i dare you, try & flee. my wife, you bitch. my hate like a constant itch. my Earth i have you, for rape i apologize. my humanity & common sense a thing that attracts flies. gang-rape fuck you're out of luck. you'll swallow all my lies. i make up in oppression for what i lack in size. my stewardship a slave & whip. racial slurs slip from my lip. i've poisoned the pool, come take a dip. Earth, my jew, i camp concentration on you.

Let's Go Serfing

are you a peasant, a slave, are you a lowly serf? did they convince you so easily that you have no worth? except for what you buy, own, consume or destroy. did you fall so easily to their little ploy? could you murder a child & still be the same? cause that's exactly what they're doing & all in your name. have you given away what you most truly need? your voice collapsed beneath foundations of greed. you'll find in forgiveness a shield & a sword. scattered armies of Oneness versus the thieves who hoard. is your light in a cage? do you hold the key? is all hope renewed if you set it free? of the battles raging, is it the one within that needs you the most is that where to begin? it's confusing for a reason, but they make it very clear that they'll kill you for treason. bully on the block doing more than teasing. beat you red, black & blue. the system's hungry for you. leaches, maggots, murderers all. i love that sound of the freedom call. bodies piled higher, but you stand tall. your gangrenous humanity matched by your vanity. you pull the flag over the people's eyes when you are the thing that they really despise. but you're hidden so well behind your sea of lies. white power house, two six mickey mouse. empire empire come out & play. will you rot from within when you start to decay? all those lives that you chose to betray. despite their toil, you think them cheaper than oil. heed this truth leaders, heed it well. for this is real what i have to tell. you're gonna end up in a prison cell. or will they string you in the streets for all your deceits? don't worry, i'll protect you. roof over head, enough to eat. simple truths the powers defeat. babies not to hunger, children in schools. how long to be led by murderous fools? people suffer, daily thousands die. trade & commerce muffle their cry. what is it you're not to see? that all those people are family. what is it you're trying to find? you can have it, i don't mind. the thing you want to see increase is your own sense of inner peace. can't set you free without you. don't let them buy & sell you, cause we can't set you free without you. your heart is not for sale. throw me your pain, i'll sing to it. let the river run through it and the ocean blue intuit/in-to-it. board your soul & set sail. everyone of you can come with me to the promised land. everyone of we can board a soul & let sail. it's not a should, it's a could and you're not damned because you would. go there & feel good. let it rain. let it hail. recycle your shame. compost garden, stake the claim. grow over the shame. let it rain. let it hail. can't set you free without you. don't let them buy & sell you cause we won't be free without you. Our Heart... has anyone seen the fire extinguisher? i really need it. i accidentally set your dog on fire. can i carry your books for you? they look really heavy & the book burning is still all the way across town. does anyone here know if democracy is dead? cause i looked necrophilia up in the dictionary & i really wanna try it. said hey everybody, said hey everybody. let's go serfing.
